NOLAN CHARGES CRIMINAL LIBEL

Agent For Hog Remedy Accuses
Donald D. Ball Agricultural Agent,
in Affidavit

BOND OF $50 IS PROVIDED

Bases Charges on Two Articles Appearing in Daily Republican Attacking His Medicine

Donald D. Ball, county agricultural agent, was arrested this afternoon on a charge of criminal libel, as preferred by Daniel W. Nolan, an agent for a hog remedy, which he alleges was attacked by the county agent as being a "fake cure", and that the county agent caused certain newspaper articles to be published which set out that the hog medicine was worthless.

The county agent provided bond for $50 for his appearance in court when the September term convenes, as no plea could be accepted now.

The complaint filed by Nolan is set out on two counts, one alleging that an article was published in the Daily Republican on June 12, and the other that an article was published in the same newspaper on June 20.

The complaint charges that the defendant, "unlawfully, wickedly, and maliciously, intending to injure, vilify and prejudice one, Daniel W. Nolan, and to deprive him of his good name, credit and reputation, and to bring him into contempt, scandal, infamy and disgrace did then and there unlawfully and maliciously make, compose, dictate and procure the same to be published and knowingly and in publishing and communicating a false, scandalous, malicious and defamatory libel in the form of an article in writing, printed and published in the Daily Republican."

Following this appears the first article as published in which the Indiana Farmer's Guide was quoted, calling upon farmers to be warned against a cure for cholera, and the second article was an endorsement by the Rush County Farmers' association of action taken against the alleged fake cure for the disease.

FIRE DEPARTMENT ANSWERS FOUR CALLS

Tuesday, There From Burning
Grass, Cause Small Damage

FIRE CRACKER STARTS FIRE

The fire department has been kept busy since Monday night, when four runs were made, one on Monday night and three on Tuesday. The call on Monday night about seven o'clock was from box 47, corner Ninth and Sexton streets, and the home of J. C. Davis, 519 West Ninth was threatened by fire.

This fire is believed to have been caused from a fire cracker, which exploded underneath the front porch, and about $15 or $20 damage was done to the floor of the porch. All three divisions of the fire department made the run.

The chemical truck answered three telephone calls Tuesday where burning grass threatened to do damage. At eleven o'clock in the morning a vacant lot, corner of Ninth and Oliver streets, was burning and would soon have done damage to nearby buildings. The next call was about 3:30 to the city park, where the grass had recently been cut and was on fire and spreading rapidly. A C. I. & W. train set fire to grass near the Rushville glove factory and other buildings east of Perkins street, and the chemical truck was again called at about six o'clock. All three of these fires were extinguished with chemicals.

DENIES EFFORT FOR OPEN SHOP

Ben Hooper Chairman of Rail Labor
Board, Replies to Bert M. Jewell,
Union Chief

SHOPMEN NOT TO MAKE PEACE

Leader Says They Will Not Consent
to Agreement Like Maintenance
of Way Workers

(By United Press)

Chicago, Ill., July 5—Denial that the United States railroad labor board was implicated in a drive by financial interests to bring about the open shop was made today by Ben W. Hooper, chairman of the board.

Hooper in a letter to Bert M. Jewell, union chief, said that such a claim was a "grave injustice." The letter was made public after Jewell announced failure of the maintenance of way workers to strike, which would strengthen the shopmen in their walkout; that the shopmen's strike was gaining daily and that the shop craft would not make peace on the same terms to which the maintenance of way workers agreed.

Hooper said that the board did not "outlaw" the shop craft organization and that Jewell, himself, had announced that the members of the union no longer came under the jurisdiction of the board.

"We accepted your own statement that the men were no longer employed by the railroads and therefore not under our control," Hooper said.

"Hope that the shopmen will yet recover their equilibrium and decide it's vastly better to go along with the labor board patiently when it makes mistakes, but confident that it desires to do justice," was expressed by Hooper.

"The board has often restrained efforts of employers to infringe on the rights and privileges of the men," Hooper said. "But we can not agree with them in every contention or ignore the right of the public."

Refusal of the maintenance of way workers to strike has strengthened the position of the shop men, who are now out, rather than weakened it, Jewell said.

"We would rather settle this affair with the railroads ourselves than draw other unions into the controversy," he said. "We never urged the other union chiefs to call a strike."

"If the maintenance of way men found the best way out of a difficult situation through their compromise with the United States railroad board, we have no complaint."

"The shopmen's strike will never be settled on terms which the maintenance of way men accepted."

Jewell was elated over a batch of telegrams on his desk telling of oilers, signalmen and maintenance of way men and foremen going out on unauthorized strike in sympathy with the shopmen.

Jewell had one telegram, he said, from Roanoke, Va., which said that train service on one line out of there was completely tied up through lack of engines in repair.

TO ORDER UNION TOWNSHIP RAISE

County Board of Review to Put Ten Percent on Land and Improvements Assessments

SAYS TOWNSHIP IS TOO LOW

Horizontal Increase Will Work No
Injustice as Tax Values Have Been Equalized

Following a conference today with Walter Bridges, of Greenfield, district representative of the state board of tax commissioners, the county board of review announced this afternoon that a horizontal increase of ten percent on all real estate and improvements in Union township would be ordered.

The board set next Monday as the time for hearing any complaints which real estate owners of Union township may have to make against the order.

The county board is authorized by law to equalize assessments as between townships and has had under consideration for several days the matter of raising the real estate and improvements in Union township.

The average taxable value of real estate and improvements in the township is $125.60. The assessments were arrived at there by H. Lee Wilson, township assessor, who had the cooperation of Will H. McMillin, former county auditor, and Homer M. Nash, who acted as the farmers association committee, in equalizing the assessments as between farms. The board of review felt that a horizontal increase would not be unjust because the tax values have already been equalized and the raise would affect all alike.

The increase was necessary to bring the Union township land and improvements up to the same plane as other townships with much the same type of soil and homes. While the township average was only $125.60, Washington township to the north averaged $137 an acre, Noble to the south $140 an acre, Jackson township to the west $146 an acre and Rushville, also on the west $151. All real estate and improvements in the county averaged $136 an acre. Union township was the next to the lowest average in the county.

FIRE SIREN TO SUPPLANT BELL

City Council Discusses Purchase of Electric Device Because Bell
Tower Needs Repair

IS NO LONGER NEEDED

Supt. Mahin Instructed to Buy New Equipment For Fire Alarm Boxes
as Underwriters Suggest

The city council held a short business session Monday night instead of the regular meeting on Tuesday night, as several members of the council could not attend the regular session, and only a few matters were taken up, including the regular allowance of bills and claims.

The matter of the extension of North Willow street across vacant lots from the Pennsylvania railroad to Tenth street, was deferred until the next meeting, as the committee was not ready to report at this time.

The fire committee was instructed to communicate with firms manufacturing electric fire sirens, with the plan being advanced to supplant the tower bell with a whistle. The tower is in bad condition and will have to be rebuilt, and the council believes that the most economic way would be to do away with the tower, and install the electric signal at some convenient place.

The bell in use is said to be worth between $1500 and $1800, and it is believed that a siren can be purchased for $150. The idea of a fire bell is now obsolete, it has been pointed out, because the city has a paid department, and volunteers are not needed only in case of a large fire. When the tower bell rings, it causes excitement and a crowd sometimes prevents firemen from working. Most cities are now doing away with a fire bell, although a few of the councilmen want a signal to announce when there is a fire call.

In this connection, Superintendent Mahin stated that the underwriters had made a report on conditions here and had ordered some changes made in fire alarm boxes. The boxes here are of the older type, and in order to make them modern, a glass door must be broken to gain access to the key. This is done to prevent the boxes from standing open which injures the boxes and prevents an alarm from being turned in when the doors are left open.

GLENWOOD BOARD TO SETTLE DIFFERENCES

Meeting Scheduled For Tuesday
Night to Discuss Resignations
Postponed Until July 18

PLACES FILLED REGULARLY

The town board of Glenwood, which has recently been in trouble on account of the misunderstanding arising between two of the members of the board, and which resulted in them resigning, was to have held a meeting Tuesday night, but the meeting was not held and will be called for Tuesday night, July 18, it was stated today.

At the present time Thomas Jones is the only member on the board who has not resigned, as James Norris and Thomas Young resigned following a dispute between them, but it was held that their resignations were not legal because no written notice had been filed with the clerk.

The members of the board desired to have a wrong impression corrected in which it was announced previously that when a member resigned, he would name his successor, because they assert that appointments were made by all of the members and that there was nothing irregular about appointing successors to the offices. It is said that everything will be adjusted at the next meeting of the board.

for the boxes, although several of the more recent boxes have the place for the glass door attached. The city also will fix a chain and a piece of iron on each pole so that in case of fire the glass may be easily broken, in order to open the door and pull the hook.

The glass doors also will lessen the number of false alarms, because the noise of falling glass would attract attention, it was pointed out.

The councilmen stated that there were several trees in the city that needed trimming above the ten foot mark over the streets and sidewalks and after this week the street commissioner will be placed on the job to do the work, and the property owner's will have the costs assessed against them on the tax duplicate.

Several warnings have been issued in this regard, and the councilmen decided to allow the property owners another chance, before rigidly enforcing the ordinance.

U. S. MAKES MONEY FROM NAVAL RADIO

Commercial Business Reduced Cost of Government And Brought Into Treasury Last Year $600,000.

REPORT GIVEN BY NAVY

By KENNETH W. CLARK
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

Washington, July 5—Without half trying, Uncle Sam is making money out of his naval radio equipment. The commercial business carried not only reduced the cost to the government of its own business, but brought into the United States Treasury last year more than $600,000 in cash.

Back in 1917, the commercial messages brought $32,239 to the treasury; in 1918 this jumped to $291,903, and it continued 'going up, so that last year there was deposited in the treasury from this source a total of $666,362. The present fiscal year is keeping up the record.

These figures were disclosed by an extensive report on the naval radio service and what it is doing, filed with the Senate appropriations committee in its hearings on the naval appropriation bill. Admiral Robinson, chief of the bureau of engineering, submitted the data.

Radio research and experimental work by the navy has resulted, Robinson's statement showed, in a large number of valuable improvements. He listed a few of them, including:

Great improvement in facilities for secret communication; doubling the capacity of the crowded ether to carry radio messages; increasing the range of aircraft radio sets from 50 to 500 miles; reduction of the weight of aircraft radio equipment, thereby saving fuel; development of a pilot cable for harbors and landing fields, making navigation and landing safe in foggy and rainy weather; improvement of simultaneous communication, so that it is now possible to send five messages at once, instead of only one.

Speed of long distance sending has been increased six fold so that 60 words a minute instead of 10 can now be sent; automatic transmission and reception have been made possible; a kite has been perfected for lifting an emergency antenna from an airship forced to land on the water, thus making possible a speedier rescue; advances have been made in controlling ships and torpedoes by radio.

Admiral Robinson also listed a great number of technical advances having to do mostly with the effectiveness of the naval radio in war time against enemies by land or sea. He detailed the 214 naval radio stations now in service adequately serve not only the Asiatic, Pacific and Atlantic fleets, but the American merchant marine as well.

DRILL TO STAR FIRST BALL GAME

Boys who expect to attend the camp this summer. The single admission tickets are 25 cents each and the season tickets good for three games are fifty cents.

The boys who desired to attend the camp, were called to meet at the Graham Annex gymnasium this afternoon, when it is expected the boys would sign application blanks and the committee would be able to get a definite idea in regard to the preparations required to fit out the camp.

The contributions to the camp fund are not coming in as fast as was expected. The idea seems to prevail among some people that the proceeds from the ball games will meet the expenses, but this is by no means the case. Although each boy will be required to pay a part of his weekly expenses, the committee estimates that a considerable sum of money will be required not only to outfit the camp and prepare the site, but to pay the balance of the actual operating costs as well.

LOVE MASTERS FEAR—
There is no fear in love; but perfect

Soon Forgotten

The mine war horror of Illinois still lingers in the minds of some people, although a majority have al-

The first two or three days ev-

Then interest commenced to wane tomorrow it will be as dead as its victims.

Our emotions are aroused suddenly, and subside almost as quickly. There are too many things to remember, and it is easier to forget.

GAME FEATURED BY LONG HITTING

Tail Lights Lose to Fast Greenfield Team Tuesday, 14 to 5, in Loosely Played Contest

REARWINE HASN'T THE STUFF

Fultz Holds Tail Lights to Six Hits and Fans Eighteen Batters in Holiday Game

In a game featured by long hitting and loose playing, the Tail Lights lost to Greenfield Tuesday afternoon on the West Third Street diamonds, by the score of 14 to 5. Rearwine, the pitcher for Rushville, did not show near as much stuff as Valentine, the regular twirler, and his wildness and errors spelled defeat for the local team.

On the other hand Greenfield had a real ball team back of Fultz, who is a real pitcher. He almost made a new record here, when he fanned 18 batters and allowed only six swats. The Tail Lights have been fielding poor in the last few games, and have depended too much on a pitcher.

Taking everything into consideration, it was not as bad a game as the fans seem to think. Rushville was up against a team of college players, outside of the pitcher and catcher.

Clever, an old favorite of the Rushville fans, was on hand and relieved Rearwine, but he did not show up as good as he formerly did, although he was good with the stick, and got a two bagger. Byrne for the locals also lined out a home run. The local team is weak on hitting needs a good pitcher, and also a tighter infield in order to play faster ball clubs.

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)

New York, July 5—Larry Lajoie, the old hero of the Cleveland Indians and one of the greatest hitters of all times, ought to know something about hitting.

In a recent interview with the United Press correspondent in Cleveland, he discussed the present day batters with the old timers.

Efforts by premier batters to become Babe Ruth's successor are resulting in more home runs, but are causing the loss of many ball games, because they strike out or lift pops in the attempt to put the ball out of the park.

"Singles were plenty good in my day," he said. "We wanted to get on base and we employed any method to get there. If a bunt would work, we tried that and if a wild pitcher was in the box, we always tried for a pass."

"To try and knock the cover off the ball every time up was unheard of. No manager would tolerate it."

Lajoie believes that the home run craze will pass away because it will be overdone.

"Wait until the batting averages of these home run hitters begin to dwindle and then the fans will want to see the consistent batter—the player who tries to win for his team by getting on base anyway he can."

"The pitchers are solving the weaknesses of these distance hitters slowly but surely and if the batters continue the free swing, they will be easy marks."

"Any man who can drive as many balls out of the parks as Ruth has done certainly is deserving of great credit, but a batter of the Wagner or Speaker type is far more dangerous."

Ruth claims that the pitchers haven't found his weakness, but he doesn't explain what they have found that makes him miss the ball.

No player is of real value to his club wins one game with a homer and loses three by rotten fielding.

When the picked major league team visits Japan this winter, they may have no cinch in keeping their slate clean on the tour. They have some real baseball players among Nipponese.

In a recent copy of the Osaka Mainichi (an English language paper) an account was given of a sixteen-inning 1 to 1 game played between Waseda University and the Hosei nine.

Taniguchi, the southpaw Waseda pitcher, allowed his opponents only three hits and struck out twenty-five for a new record in Japan. He also is quite a batter, appearing sixth in the batting order.

The parlance of the diamond was followed so closely by the Japanese writer that it might have been taken for a story in a metropolitan newspaper.

Instead of following the usual order in the box score, however the Japanese box scores carry across—At Bats, Hits, Strike, Outs, Base on Balls, Sacrifice Hits, Stolen Bases and Errors.

If the Japanese team could shoot craps and play poker it would qualify as a real major league team.

The Argentine polo team went to England to learn how to play. The British proved such experts as professors that when the championship matches arrived, the South Americans walked away with the cup.

Luis Firpo, the Argentine giant fighter, ought to go to London and take some lessons from Joe Beckett and Bomby Wells. Firpo shows talent at everything but taking the noble dive.

The office boy rises to ask that if Willard should beat Dempsey again, how would they settle the tie.

If Benny Leonard and Lew Tindler come out of their Jersey City brawl with the score even, everyone knows how much they'll get for deciding their tie.

Extra inning fights have the habit of paying large.

Bill Brennan, the bulky Chicago heavyweight, is the waiting champion of the ring. For two years, ever since William had Dempsey's fist run clear through to his backbone, has been waiting to take another sock on the jaw for the cash he would get for the taking.

With six men the California track team went to the national meet and scored almost twice as many points as Penn State, the runner-up. It's a good thing for the noble east and midwest that the other members of the team got homesick and went back to the coast.

SYRACUSE TEAM HAS NEW HALF OWNERSHIP

P. G. Barthleme, University of Michigan Athletic Director, Buys Interest in League Team

SAM BREADON OTHER OWNER

New York, July 5—Sale of the half interest of E. E. Landgraft, in the Syracuse international League club to P. G. Barthleme, director of Athletics, at the University of Michigan, was virtually completed here today.

John Conway Toole, president of the league, said the deal could not be announced officially until it had been approved by the other club owners of the league. He intimated, however, that this would be only a formality as "Mr. Barthleme was a high type sportsman and would be a valuable addition to the league."

Sam Breadon, owner of the St. Louis Cardinals holds the other half interest in the club and he had promised to build up the club with a shipment of players from his National League possessions.

Rogers Hornshy hit his 19th homer and gave the Cardinals a 6 to 3 victory over the Reds in the second game after they had dropped the first session 11 to 9.

Sam Rice drove in both runs that enabled Washington to win the second game from the Red Sox, 2 to 0, after Jack Quinn had beat them 4 to 0 in the opener.

The Browns and the White Sox split even, the Browns losing the first game, 5 to 3, and winning the second by the same score.

The Yanks dropped the first game to the Athletics, 3 to 1, and won the second, 6 to 1.

The Braves and Phils scored three runs each in the 9th inning, but the Phils won 5 to 3 on two runs scored in the first.

Mrs. E. S. Jarrett had as her guests Sunday at her home in Mabilia, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Deeters and son Lewis of this city.

The Pythian Sisters will meet tonight in regular session at the Knights of Pythias hall, and a large attendance of the members is urged.

Miss Mable Ball of Farmington vicinity, and Justice Worley instead of Justice Whesley, as announced in Monday's issue, were united in marriage at the parsonage of the Little Flatrock Christian church Saturday evening. Both the bride and bridegroom are known here.

The choir members and their families of the St. Paul M. E. church enjoyed a picnic supper Tuesday evening at the fairgrounds east of the city. About thirty guests enjoyed the evening's entertainment, consisting of croquet, horse shoes and stunts. Mrs. Raymond Hargrove surprised the audience with her operatic talents and Mrs. O. P. Wamsley was excellent in her story telling.

Glad Sister Escaped Operation

"Physicians had given my sister up to die; they wanted to operate for gall stones, but she was too weak and could only talk in whispers. I got her a bottle of May's Wonderful Remedy and in 3 weeks she was able to get about and walked a mile to church." AMUSEMENTS

Wm. Russell at the Mystic

There's a fine picture at the Mystic today only. William Russell is the star in the Fox production "A Self-Made Man." Some of the big punches in the film are a boxing match, a trained bear who "swings
a wicked mitt," and a lively mix-up between the star and one of the other characters. The love story is not of the sugar-water or mushy brand, but is the sort that makes the spectator wish to be one of the principals. It is a great tale for real folks. There is plenty of comedy, some fine photography, and a well-picked cast. The director apparently did not overlook anything that would add to the entertainment value of the photoplay.

William Russell goes through the picture on high, with all six cylinders running like clockwork. His is no lollypop portrayal. When he moves he radiates vigor. Renee Adoree portrays the sweetheart be-witchingly.

Engagement Closes Today

D. W. Griffith spent ten months of unremitting endeavor upon the making of "Way Down East," famous for 22 years as one of Americas most successful plays, and the three day run will close here today
at the Princess.

Of course, there will be the expected Griffith elaboration of accessories to proper production and a large symphony orchestra under the direction of Sidney Lowenstein, who has been associated with most of the Griffith "features", will be heard in a special score. It should be said that "Way Down East" in New York was seen by an enthusiastic crowd of representative people, many of whom had paid the record price of $10.00 for seats. In this city there is no premium put upon the first night, and there will be daily matinees and evening performance following the opening.

"Way Down East" is said to represent the Griffith art at its apex.
Twelve thousand feet of film remain from the great "footage" originally taken and in the three hours of the unfolding of the story there will be shown one of the most realistic snowstorms ever photographed and a real breaking up of ice on the Connecticut River, in New England.
Griffith has followed closely the stage play by Lottie Blair Parker and Joseph R. Grismer, however, with elaborations of some of the characters and scenes. A fortune was spent upon the rights of the play, and subsequently the producer lavished money on the actual preparation of the production.

FIFTY YEARS AGO

a woman in Lynn, Mass., was steeping herbs on her kitchen stove according to a recipe of her own, to furnish medicine for the women of her neighborhood. Today, a stone's throw from the little house where she lived, there is a four-story laboratory, making the same medicine for the women of the world. During the last year almost 500 tons of carefully selected herbs were used in the manufacture of Lydia E.
Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.
A woman's medicine for woman's ailments. Have you tried it?—Advertisement.

the expense of a low resale price for the Hupmobile re-sale price is notably high.

RUSSIA'S FUTURE IS BARTER TRADE

Prices in Moscow Are Doubling Every Month Which Means Multiplying 4,000 Times

MAY CHECK PRODUCTION

People of no Country Are Now Carrying on Trade With People of Soviet Russia

(By United Press)

Washington, July 5.—If you think the cost of living is high here
don't go to Moscow.

"Prices in Moscow are now doubling every month, which means multiplying 4,000 times a year," says a statement of the statement continues. "Then, in the nation of food in April cost 1,000,000 rubles."

At the normal rate of exchange
this would have been $515,000.

"The time must apparently come soon when paper money will no longer buy," the statement continues. "Then, in the absence of precious metals, all business will have to be done by barter—a method so cumbersome that it will almost inevitably check the increase of production which otherwise might be hoped to followed from the so-called
"new economic policy."

Russia is maintaining a trade blockade against herself, the Department of Commerce declared.

The people of no country are now carrying on trade with the people of Soviet Russia, the department said in a comprehensive statement designed to clear many false impressions regarding business relations with the Bolshevik regime.

Despite treaties with Germany,
England and Italy, providing that national of these countries, may enter Russia for trade purposes, the department declared that when these traders arrived there they found that all business was a government monopoly and that they could not deal with private citizens.

It was emphasized that this government places no restrictions on exports to Russia, but that trade is hampered by these conditions which the Russian government alone can correct.

ICE CREAM OR HOOTCH?

Kinston, N. C.—Served ahead of alcoholic drinks at a banquet, ice cream "knock the props" from under the hootch local ice cream manufacturers declare. Experiments have proved that the frozen desert kills the thirst for booze, at least temporarily. Ice cream, it is claimed provides everything in whiskey except the kick.

SUIT FOR POSSESSION

A suit for possession of a rental property has been filed in Justice Steeh's court with Henry Joyce as plaintiff and Bert Ulser, as defendant. The complaint demands immediate possession and the case will be heard on July 12 at 10 a. m.

Big Scale Industry Has Made America Rich

AMERICA is the richest country in the world because of its great natural resources, and because it has utilized large scale organizations to develop them. It has done big things in a big way. Other nations have had more workmen, cheaper labor, more densely settled areas, yet America has outstripped them all. Why? Because of "Big Industry"—vast, centralized organization.

The measure of this big-scale organization is service. The big unit is constructive—far-seeing—resourceful—permanent. It can be depended upon to provide essential commodities in times of stress.

A big organization should be judged by the service it renders.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is a big organization, built squarely upon service. It has grown and prospered because of the need for its service. It is doubtful if a smaller organization could give the service rendered by this Company.

Because of its size and efficiency, the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) can manufacture on an economical scale. From one natural resource it produces hundreds of useful products at a minimum cost, thus enabling the Company to sell each of its long line of products at a lower price than would otherwise be possible.

Because of its thorough distribution service, resulting from its great volume of business, it is possible for the man living in the remote corners of the 10 Middle Western States served to get such petroleum products as he needs with facility almost equal to that of the man living in the city.

The forecast for 1922 is for a heavier demand for petroleum products than this nation has ever known.
The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) has keyed its entire organization to meet this demand. Regardless of the emergencies which may arise, the Company believes that its organization will be able to meet the situation.

Good through and through

The best tires, like the best melons, must be more than just good looking. They must be uniformly good through and through.

All the materials which go into Miller Tires are tested for quality. Any material which varies more than 3/100 of 1 per cent is rejected. Uniform mileage is built into every inch.

That is why Miller Tires wear uniformly and every one gives more than expected mileage. The Geared-to-the-Road Tread lasts 50 per cent longer than the average non-skid tread.

Buy a Miller Tire and you can be certain of satisfaction. Prices are lower than ever before—quality is higher.

THE CEMETERY

GOD'S ACRE

Many organizations both general and local, are urging the importance of beautiful cemeteries. Rush county has many beautiful cemeteries which are the fruit of years of toil on the part of the officers and lot owners of these picturesque places. You can assist in this noble and refined work. Visit your cemetery often, see that your lot is well kept; if you are not a lot owner secure a lot and by co-operation help make these beautiful places more attractive for all time to come.
